

The Gregorian

Hello & Goodbye

Dear Residents,

The end has come. For some, this is just the end of the school year with at least a few more exciting ones on the way. For others, however, this is the end of college altogether with nothing to look forward to except years of soulless toil.

No matter where you fall on that continuum, hopefully your time here in Gregory has been enjoyable and worthwhile. And the best thing is: it's not quite over yet. Make the most of your waning days in Gregory to savor the friendships you've made here, as well as the various goodies sure to greet you at the remaining study breaks.

Those of you fortunate enough to be returning next year probably won't appreciate these fleeting pleasures as much as you should. But take it from the old and wise among us, this really is the best time of your life so live it up! And study for finals too (if you get a chance).

Sincerely,
The Gregorian

Move Out & PennMOVES

Just a reminder that the move-out date for non-seniors without extensions is May 14th at noon. For everyone else the date is May 20th. Remember to turn in your keys and take out all your garbage.... and have a great summer!

If you have items you won't be taking with you and would like to donate to charity, Gregory will be taking part in PennMOVES this year. Drop off your items in the bins in the Piano Lounge and they will be distributed to local charities. For more details, including the list of charitable organizations and needed items, consult <http://www.business-services.upenn.edu/housing/pennmoves/index.html>.

End-of-the-year Shoutouts

To Green: You're lame! But I'll miss you nonetheless over the summer.

To the owner of Max: You don't need to tell me that you're drunk...I can tell by how red you are.

To those two Mexicans always together: Start dating already! It's obvious! Anytime I see either of you, you're with the other one getting food or going somewhere. Everybody already suspects something so just make it official.

To My Not-So-Secret Affair: Thank you for making this such a memorable year for me. Who knows what I would have done without your hair balls in my bra every morning... --Your Lover and Cuddle Buddy

To My Valentine and My Sloth: I am going to miss all of the "dance parties", late night procrastination sessions, and misdemeanors that we have committed together. I can't wait to see what next year has in store for us! --Your Polar Bear

To My Gym Buddy: Thank you for being such a positive influence in my life this year! I wouldn't have had such a fantastic freshman year if not for your presence. You truly were an inspiration and a motivational factor when it came to all those early mornin' wake up calls. Congratulations on all that you have accomplished this year. I am really proud of you. One day we will get to eat that slice of pizza without regret! --Your Fellow Po' Kid

To Kirsten Washington: I miss PennQuest! Let's do it again!

To Swee Lim: I'd like to play bad... minton with Wendy someday.

To Hanzhe Zhang: Free Tibet

To Andy Huang:
You're so hottt!

To some of the ITAs: YOU PEOPLE ARE SO LOUD IN THE COMPUTER LAB! PRACTICALLY SCREAMING! HAVE SOME CONSIDERATION!

Elsie, Veonix, Judith, and the 5th roomie/trainer—let the races continue without any unwanted trophies ;)

To the women of room 406, I love you so much! Thanks for being not just the most amazing room-mates, but such incredible friends this year. Even though we won't be living together next year I know and hope we'll stay close and I feel so lucky to have met such strong and wonderful women. Thank you for a ridiculous year of late night chats, coloring our walls, and growing up. I will always remember you and this year. Love love love.

To the Van Pelt 3rd floor New Hampshirite with the sideburns: Can I be your pocket Asian? I promise to help with Chemistry! --Shame on you if you don't know
